

Teambuilding and Ropes Programs at Hale

Programs that utilize individual and group challenge activities to achieve community bonding.

Low and High Ropes Course Programs

- Low Ropes activities consist of group challenges that require some level of physical involvement.
- High ropes courses require climbing in trees or on telephone poles to walk across logs, wires or ropes.

New in 2008 – Universal Ropes Course

- Universal accessibility provides opportunities for participants disabled or not, to experience this course while communicating and gaining self confidence.

Teambuilding Programs

- Teambuilding initiatives consist of challenges that require a variety of group processes. Group members are given opportunities to problem solve, share acceptable means for communication, and enjoy successes.

"Tell me and I forget. Teach me and I remember. Involve me and I learn."
